On the small Mediterranean island of Porto Buio, the live nativity scene is the traditional event of every Christmas there. But this year the child who has played the baby Jesus for years has fully outgrown the role, and since the island's birth rate has been zero for years, the only solution which the new mayor has come up with is to change Jesus's nationality. And maybe even his religion!!

After a long relationship, Tommaso finally succeeds in getting his girlfriend Chiara to leave him. What awaits him now, or so he believes, is the infinite freedom of countless adventures. However, the young, handsome and romantic actor is constantly vacillating between enthusiastic outbursts and reluctant castrations and soon realizes that he is free only to play the same part of the script. He is just a ticking bomb on the path of the women he encounters.
